BEVERLY EAVES PERDUE
GOVERNOR

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 92

EXTENDING EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 88 AND TERMINATION OF EXECUTIVE ORDER 87

WHEREAS, I issued Executive Order No. 87 on April 16, 2011, declaring a state of emergency as a result of severe weather impacting the State including tornadoes, flooding and severe winds; and

WHEREAS, I also issued Executive Order No. 88 also issued on April 16 2011, which waived the rules and regulations that limit the hours of service for operators of certain commercial vehicles and lifted weight restrictions on certain vehicles; and

WHEREAS, both Executive Orders contained a provision that they would be effective for thirty (30) days or the duration of the emergency, whichever is less; and

WHEREAS, the emergency that necessitated Executive Order 87 has now ended; and

WHEREAS, the ongoing recovery efforts related to the tornadoes, flooding and severe winds, including debris removal from those impacted areas, requires that the State continue to waive the maximum hours of service for drivers prescribed by N.C.G.S. § 20-381 for persons transporting essential fuels, food, water, medical supplies, restoration of utility services, and debris removal.

By the power vested in me as Governor by the Constitution and laws of the State of North Carolina, IT IS ORDERED:

Executive Order No. 87 issued April 16, 2011, is hereby terminated, effective as of 12:00 p.m. on the date signed below.

Executive Order No. 88 is hereby extended until midnight June 30, 2011.

This order is effective immediately.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto signed my name and affixed the Great Seal of the State of North Carolina at the Capitol in the City of Raleigh, this Thirteenth day of May in the year of our Lord two thousand and eleven, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and thirty-fifth.
