Alcoholism and Chemical Dependency Programs

ITEMS NOT ALLOWED AT

DART CHERRY

If the below items are turned into the probation/parole staff the first day of arrival, they will be inventoried, stored, and returned to the resident the day of program departure. Items arriving at DART Cherry after the first day will not be returned. It is the resident's responsibility to inform family members what items are allowed and not allowed at the DART Cherry facility.

- Alcohol
- Over-the-counter medications and illegal drugs are not allowed. **see note below****
- Weapons
- Any tobacco product: cigarettes, electric cigarettes (based on nicotine factor), cigars, snuff, smokeless tobacco, chews, or other substances
- Rolling papers, pipes, or other products used to smoke, inhale or ingest tobacco products. This does not include American Indian Ceremonial Pipes which may remain with the resident with the approval of the Facility Manager.
- Matches, lighters, or other devices used to ignite fire.
- Cell Phones, pagers, and cameras
- Washing detergent, liquid softener, bleach, laundry starch or dryer sheets
- Container that has been opened or has the seal broken
- Cologne
- Glass containers or aerosol cans
- Clothes that glorify alcohol or drugs
- Cassette/CD players, DVD players, IPODS,/MP3 players, tapes, CDs, and DVDs
