

Resources Deployed to Respond to BP's Deepwater Horizon Oil Spill

The following information was provide by the U.S. Coast Guard as of June 14, 2010

Boom – 2.3 million feet of containment boom deployed.

3.1 million feet of sorbent boom deployed.

450,000 feet of containment & 1.9 million feet of sorbent boom are available.

Vessels – More than 5,400 vessels are currently responding on site, including skimmers, tugs, barges & recovery vessels.

In-situ burns – More than 178 controlled burns have been conducted, efficiently removing a total of more than 4 million gallons of oil from the open water.

Skimming – Approximately 19.9 million gallons of oil-water mix have been recovered.

Dispersants – 1.26 million gallons of dispersant have been deployed.

Aerial: 833,000 gallons

Subsea: 382,000 gallons

More than 529,000 gallons are available

Surveillance – 68.2 miles of Gulf Coast shoreline have been impacted by the oil

- 34.8 miles in LA

- 10.8 miles in MS

- 7.2 miles in AL

- 8.7 miles in FL

Wildlife – 1,282 birds, 725 dead / 387 turtles, 324 dead / 41 mammals, 39 dead

Fisheries – 78,264 square miles of Gulf of Mexico federal waters remain closed to fishing in order to balance economic and public health concerns. 68% remain open.

Personnel – As of the last manpower summary on 09 Jun,

24,651 people... 21,855 responders, 2,796 at Incident Cmd Posts

BP: 20,953, FED: 1,287, State: 1,544, Local: 147, Volunteer: 79

The President has authorized 17,500 National Guard troops from the Gulf Coast states to participate in the response to the BP oil spill.